CIVIL ACTION NO. 06-2396-M

-vs-

JUDGE DRELL

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.

MAGISTRATE JUDGE KIRK

AMENDED MEMORANDUM RULING

In a spurious "Motion for Ruling," plaintiff has requested a supposed clarification of issues regarding an alleged request filed into the record on August 24, 2007, for an extension of time to effect service on Margaret Johnson. The record of this case reflects NO such filing. We note that Mr. Sisk attempted to file such a motion, but the same was denied by Judge James T. Trimble, Jr. on October 31, 2007. See Document No. 127.

Accordingly, we observe there is no basis for the motion. However, because this matter is on appeal via multiple appeals, we are uncertain whether our jurisdiction to determine this issue is divested and we refer the motion for consideration to the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

SIGNED on this 2nd day of April, 2008, at Alexandria, Louisiana.

DEE D. DRELL
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
